

TELL ME A STORY PITCH CONTEST 2025 TERMS & CONDITIONS

1 Organizers

- 1.1 The Tell Me A Story Pitch Contest (hereinafter, the "Pitch Contest") is organized by the Monte-Carlo Television Festival in collaboration with 1895 Films as part of the Business Content industry conference program during the 64th Monte-Carlo Television Festival, scheduled to take place from June 13th to 17th, 2025, at the Grimaldi Forum in Monaco.
- 1.2 The Monte-Carlo Television Festival (hereinafter, the "Festival") is responsible for the overall administrative and logistical organization of the Pitch Contest and shall have the authority to define its rules and procedures.

2 Event Name & Focus

- 2.1 The Pitch Contest shall be titled "Tell Me A Story", with the baseline: "It will take a year of your life to create your story. Are you willing to do that?"
- 2.2 The Pitch Contest focuses on factual/non-fiction storytelling, aiming to identify and highlight compelling, original, and untold narratives that provide new perspectives and reflect a high degree of creative and editorial integrity, and not commercial works.

3 Format

- 3.1 Participants ("Storytellers") whose projects are selected for the final round shall have the opportunity to pitch during one (1) of up to three (3) Pitch Sessions, taking place during the Business Content program between June 14th and 16th, 2025 (one session per day).
- 3.2 Only one (1) storyteller per selected project shall be entitled to present during the Pitch Session. The substitution of the storyteller with another individual is not permitted, except under exceptional circumstances and with the prior written approval of the Monte-Carlo Television Festival.
- 3.3 Each Pitch Session shall have a maximum duration of sixty (60) minutes and shall feature between five (5) to six (6) finalist storytellers, selected by the organizers.
- 3.4 Pitch Structure:
- ◆ Each storyteller shall have a strict maximum of five (5) minutes to present their project. This will be timed and enforced by the moderator.
 - ◆ Presentations may be verbal-only, but the use of support materials (such as a PPT presentation with a maximum of five (5) slides or a short video clip) is strongly encouraged.
 - ◆ Following their presentation, storytellers shall engage in a three (3) to five (5) minute Q&A session with the judging panel.

4 Submission Criteria & Eligibility

- 4.1 Participation in the Pitch Contest is free of charge. Only one (1) submission per storyteller is permitted.
- 4.2 The Pitch Contest is open to:
- ◆ Students affiliated with a recognized university or film school.
 - ◆ Independent young creators not affiliated with any university or film school.
 - ◆ Applicants must be between eighteen (18) and thirty (30) years of age at the time of submission.
- 4.3 Intellectual Property (IP) Rights & Ownership:
- ◆ All storytellers retain full ownership of their submitted project. However, the winner agrees to enter into a co-ownership agreement with 1895 Films for a period of up to one (1) year following the Pitch Contest final.
 - ◆ If, at the end of one (1) year, the project has not been commercially exploited, ownership shall revert fully to the storyteller.
 - ◆ If the project is sold within this one-year period, 1895 Films shall be credited as a co-producer.
- 4.4 Any visual aids (PPT, video, etc.) submitted must be free of copyright restrictions or use only royalty-free materials. Participants shall be solely liable for any infringement claims arising from their materials.
- 4.5 All applications and presentations must be in English.
